STEWARDSHIP - An Engineer, A Psychologist, and A Theologian were hunting in the wilds of Northern Canada: (Continued from last week)

While they were debating and arguing, the trapper returned to his cabin, and after a quick "Welcome to my humble shack," They immediately posed their question: "Why do you suspend your pot-bellied stove from the ceiling?" His answer was brief and simple, it's just that I had plenty of wire but not much more stove pipe.

(To be continued next week)

From Fr. Tony

Dear Brothers and Sisters of OLQP,

It is with great joy that we welcome to our parish this weekend Rev. Father Joseph Kiragu!

Father Josef is a priest from the Diocese of Nyahururu, Kenya; and he is visiting our parish for a "mission appeal" in behalf of his diocese. His visit though short will be a good and fitting opportunity for us in the parish to have a glimpse of the reality of the church in that part of the world where he is from. In fact, Fr. Josef will be speaking at all our Masses this weekend with the hope that we open our hearts to the joys and the pains of our brothers and sisters in his diocese. Let us support them in their needs!

Not by coincidence, the underlying theme of our Scriptural Readings for this Sunday (16th Sunday Ordinary Time) is about hospitality and welcoming others. The First Reading narrates the story of Abraham welcoming three strangers on a journey to his tent and offering them refreshment and rest. The Gospel recounts the ways of hospitality that Martha and Mary manifested to Jesus when he visited their village. In both stories, the hosts, who opened their homes and welcomed others, receive the blessing of no other than the very presence of God!

My prayer is that moved by the Readings this Sunday and by the visit of Fr. Josef to our parish we will open our hearts to the needs of our brothers and sisters in the Diocese of Nyahururu and support the "mission appeal".

God bless us all!
Fr. Tony

People generally have no real problem wearing proper clothing when entering places that demand such attire. Are you dressed properly for this important Sacred Sacrificial Meal?
