PRAYERS

Please keep in your prayers all of our active military personnel here and overseas. We especially pray for our parishioners: Joshua Ashley, Ryan O'Connell, and John Velazquez.

May the Lord protect them in their service.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

If you are adding someone to our Parish sick list, please consider the healing power of these beautiful shawls. They are prayed over by the Prayer Shawl Ministry and blessed by our Pastor. If you know of someone you think is in need of a Prayer Shawl, please contact the Parish Center: 201-845-9566.

Thank You for Your Support of Our Parish During These Challenging Times

For those of you who would like to continue to give through envelopes or cash, please place it in the designated collection boxes in the church, mail your donation to the Parish Center (410 Maywood Avenue, Maywood, NJ 07607), or drop it off at the white mailbox located to the right of the side door of the Parish Center. Thank you for your generosity!

Fulfillment

It is interesting that during the Easter season, when we do not hear a reading from the Old Testament, it becomes so important. This is particularly true today. Peter's speech begins with a prayer formula familiar to Jews: "The God of Abraham . . ." (Acts 3:13). It likewise contains the potent phrases "Holy and Righteous One" and "mouth of all the prophets" (3:14, 18). Peter was stating in no uncertain terms that the law, psalms, and prophets had been fulfilled in Christ. This is reinforced by Jesus himself in the Gospel passage, when he states that everything in the scriptures (to the early Christians "the scriptures" were what we call the Old Testament) had to be fulfilled. Above all, Jesus and Peter both emphasize that we are witnesses to all of this, and are sent forth to bear witness to it in the world. The Latin Missa, from which our word "Mass" comes, means "sent" (as in "mission"). As we leave Mass today, let us remember to be witnesses to all that has been fulfilled in the risen Christ. ## Thank you from Mercy House

Dear Our Lady Queen of Peace,

The Archdiocese of Newark Respect Life Office has gratefully received a generous donation of candy filled easter eggs and communion attire for little girls and boys for Mercy House on Clinton Avenue in Newark.

Thank you so much for making this generous donation. The easter eggs and communion attire will be handed out to the many families who come to Mercy House, many who have children celebrating their first holy communion and could not possibly afford a communion dress or suit. The easter eggs as well will be handed out to celebrate the easter season. Many of the families who come to Mercy House have been through difficulties such as abandonment and abuse and your very thoughtful gift will help them to enjoy the easter season and the celebration of their child's first holy communion and we are truly blessed you have chosen to donate to our cause.

May God bless you, along with each member of Our Lady Queen of Peace, for contributing to the mission of Mercy House.

Together in Christ,

Christine Geiges-Krey, Director

the 2021
Annual Appeal

Make your gift today.

If you have not already done so, please consider contributing to the 2021 Annual Appeal. We are about $16,000 short of our goal and need your help.

The Magnificat (Canticle of Mary)

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord,
my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,
for He has looked with favor on His humble servant.
From this day all generations will call me blessed,
the Almighty has done great

things for me,
and holy is His Name.

He has mercy on those who fear Him
in every generation.
He has shown the strength of his arm,
He has scattered the proud in their conceit.

He has cast down the mighty from their thrones,
and has lifted up the humble.
He has filled the hungry with good things,
and the rich He has sent away empty.

He has come to the help of His servant Israel
for He has remembered his promise of mercy,
the promise He made to our fathers,
to Abraham and his children for ever.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever.
Amen, Alleluia.

- from the Liturgy of the Hours

Thanksgiving after Holy Communion

Anima Christi (Soul of Christ)

SOUL of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O good Jesus, hear me.
Within Thy Wounds hide me.
Suffer me not to be separated from Thee.
From the malignant enemy, defend me.
In the hour of my death, call me,
And bid me come to Thee.
That with Thy saints, I may praise Thee.
Forever and ever. Amen.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, may the whole world burn with love for Thee! (x3)

Bereavement Support | dcnjoe@olqp.org

It is said that death ends our life on earth, but it does not end a relationship. There is great truth in this statement. However, the loss of a loved one can bring great pain. If you need bereavement counseling, please contact Deacon Joe at 201-845-9566, Ext. 119.

Youth Ministry (201) 845-9566, ext 117

Any youth in grades 8-12 are invited to join us.
Please email justine.garcia@olqp.org

Why should I register in the parish?

All members of the parish should be formally registered as members of the parish. You must be formally registered if you wish to arrange a Baptism, a Confirmation, or a Wedding in the parish Church or wish to register in the Parish School or the Religious Education (CCD) Program. You must also be a registered member of the parish for at least three months before you can obtain a Sponsor Certificate or schedule a Baptism or a Wedding.

Please call the Parish Center at 201-845-9566 to register or visit our home page at www.olqp.org, scroll down to the middle of the page and click where it states "Parish Registration" to download the form. Thank you and welcome to Our Lady Queen of Peace!

Mother's Day Gift Bags for Birthright Moms

The Human Concerns Ministry is very happy this year to bring back this collection. This is a chance for the Birthright mothers to be acknowledged and feel special with decorative gift bags. This year we are asking for gift card donations in any amount to Target, Dunkin or ShopRite. The collection box will be in the back of Church to receive gift cards or monetary donations the weekend of 4/17. Donations can also be dropped at the Parish Center during regular hours. Thank you!

Confirmation Class Food Drive

Your support of our Confirmation Class Food Drive Service Project would be greatly appreciated. This drive will support the Helping Hands Ministry in Rochelle Park. The Helping Hands Ministry currently serves over 100 families throughout Bergen, Passaic and Hudson Counties. The drive will end the weekend of May 1/2. Questions contact: Justine Garcia at (201) 961-4782 or ReEd@olqp.org.

Your donation of the following non-perishable foods will be greatly appreciated:

Stewardship Corner

Trust in the Lord proves itself in difficult times:
(continued from last week) The moment of trust arrives when pain does enter our lives, or we are confronted with the realization that we are still holding back in our giving. This is the moment, when as stewards, we must choose whether or not to trust God. May we all take this next step in our journey to live the stewardship way of life. Let us learn to move forward putting our trust in God. May we learn to accept all gifts from God and give back the first fruits of our time, talent and treasure to the Church and community. Remember, "Let go and let God".

Stewardship Results

	4/11/21	Weekly Goal

2021 Mass Book

The Church teaches us that our prayers are invaluable to the living as well as those who have died. We commend them to God's mercy when we pray for them. The living and the dead are helped not only by our daily prayers, but by the offering of Masses in their name for the benefit of their souls. There are still individual Mass intentions available in 2021. Please call the Parish Center for available dates.

Treasures from Our Tradition

The month of May has not only good weather, but an interesting pedigree. It is named after the Roman goddess Maia, said to be the mother of Hermes, or Mercury. The Romans saw it as "love's month," while in England, more practical farmers called it "Three Milks," since the cows grazing on springtime's bounty could produce at a phenomenal rate. Old customs die hard, and Christians have never made peace with Maytime frolics. No wonder that popular tradition dedicated the month's prayers and devotions to Mary, although we cannot lose sight of the fact that the liturgy always has Easter at the center of celebration. Recent developments have enriched Mary's place in a cycle of feast days woven through the whole year, dedicated Saturday as a weekly day for devotion, and highlighted Mary's role in the Advent story. In fact, every day of the year Evening Prayer centers on the singing of Mary's Cantic of Praise. The fifty days of Easter culminate on Pentecost with Mary, present of course for Christ's birth, waiting in the upper room for the birth of the church.

Friday: St. George; St. Adalbert
Saturday: St. Fidelis of Sigmaringen

FEAST OF FAITH The Second Reading

The Liturgy of the Word generally follows a consistent pattern of three readings and a psalm. The second reading is always taken from one of the New Testament epistles or the book of Revelation, and generally is not intentionally aligned with either the Gospel or the first reading.

Where would we be without these letters in which great saints and apostles like Paul, Peter, James, and John share their wisdom and pastoral good sense with the early Christian communities? It is in these letters, even more than in the Gospel narratives, that we learn what it means to be church: to live with each other, in the world yet not of the world, in these days after the Lord's resurrection. Each New Testament letter was written by a particular leader for a particular community at a particular time. We are reminded of this at the beginning of the proclamation—"A reading from the letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians," or the Corinthians, or the Thessalonians. These texts were shaped by their particular historical and cultural context, but at the same time, through the liturgy, these letters are written to us, here, today. They speak to the realities of Christian living no matter where—or when—we live. They are truly "the word of the Lord" for us.

NATURE'S LESSONS

Believe one who has tried, you shall find a fuller satisfaction in the woods than in books. The trees and the rocks will teach you that which you cannot hear from the masters.

- St. Bernard of Clairvaux

MARTYRDOM

It is not the suffering but the cause that makes the martyr. - English proverb

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

THIRD SUNDAY OF Easter

APRIL 18, 2021

When the two disciples returned from Emmaus, they recounted what had taken place on the way.

Luke 24:35

NEW LIFE

Peter saw Jesus after the Resurrection. He listened as Jesus told the disciples all that had been written about him in the scriptures, all that he had said and done when he was ministering among them. Peter heard how Jesus had fulfilled all in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms. Jesus, the Messiah, had come to be among them to bring them peace, to offer forgiveness of their sins. Peter shared this Good News with the crowds who gathered to hear him tell the sacred story, the story of God's love, poured out in Jesus the Christ and offered to the whole world. All who hear and believe are offered new life, life in which God's love is perfected in them. Are you listening? Are you ready to share in this abundant new life?

NOT WHAT WAS EXPECTED

Have you ever waited for something for so long you began to think it might never happen? Your graduation day, or the day of your marriage, or the birth of a child, perhaps. The Israelites had waited for centuries for the coming of the Messiah. Yet when Jesus, the long-awaited Anointed One came, many failed to believe in him. He wasn't what they expected. The Messiah was supposed to be a strong, powerful commander of armies, not humble, compassionate, and suffering. After his resurrection, Jesus appeared to the disciples and explained all that he had said in his time with them, opening their minds to what had been written in the scriptures so that they could accept his suffering and death and rejoice in his resurrection.

GOD'S LOVE IN FLESH AND BONE

While the disciples had come to believe that Jesus was the Messiah, his crucifixion and death had left them fearful and confounded. The news of the empty tomb and his appearance to the two disciples on the road to Emmaus added to their confusion. It seems that at first, Jesus' presence with them did not alleviate their uncertainty. In fact, they were "startled and terrified and thought they were seeing a ghost" (Luke 24:37). Jesus saw that they needed physical proof that it was he who stood among them. They needed to see the nail marks in his hands and feet, to see God's love in flesh and bone, in one who ate among them. Only when their fear and confusion had been quelled could they hear the story, the sacred story of how the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead. Only when they were filled with the peace of Christ would they be ready to witness, to share the sacred story with others. We, too, are invited to hear the sacred story and to perceive God's love for us in Jesus Christ.
