Priorities

Make a choice. God or money, material things, earthly pleasure. This is what Jesus asks us to do in today's Gospel. The Pharisees and scribes, and many people, want it both ways. God and wealth. But Jesus knows that "no servant can serve two masters." It is not that wealth is inherently bad, but the pursuit of it to the exclusion of what is good and righteous is. Our faith is meant to guide and shape the way we live. If we are followers of Jesus Christ, we will treat others, especially the poor and vulnerable, fairly and justly. We will live with devotion to God and let our lives speak the truth of God's love for all. We will put first things first, or more precisely, put God and God's ways first, assured that when we do, everything else will fall into place. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Celebrating Catechetical Sunday - "This is My Body, Given For You"

Dear Parish Families,

Today we celebrate "Catechetical Sunday", where we acknowledge and prayerfully support all who serve the Church as ministers of catechesis. Our theme for this year is "This is my body given for you," (Luke 22:19). Cardinal Tobin in his letter to the Catechists "invites us to reflect on the Eucharist as the source and summit of our life in Christ." Our dedicated Catechists volunteer their time and gift of the faith each week to our students. We are also grateful for the dedication of our Hall Monitors who come each week keeping in mind the safety of everyone in our program.

Our Lady Queen of Peace is so blessed to have over 140 students enrolled in our Catechetical Program. It was a pleasure meeting so many young families during our orientation. Our program ranges from Pre-K to 8th Grade. Two years ago, we established a program "RCI-Teens" for High School students who have chosen to continue with their faith formation in order to prepare to receive the sacrament of confirmation; this program has also increased in the number of students attending. Praise be to God!!

We wish to expand our program to include events that would take place outside of our weekly Sunday instruction; especially during the Advent and Lenten seasons. Should parents wish to participate in a planning committee, please contact me. In addition to expanding our program for our students we will also be providing a workshop for parents on "Forgiven" a study on the Sacrament of Reconciliation, please see future bulletins for upcoming information on this workshop.

Finally, we are always praying to increase the number of Catechists who may be able to fill in as substitutes or aides in the classroom. Should you be interested please contact me.

Fr. Tony and I ask you to join us in continuing to pray for all who carry out catechetical ministries in our parish. We are deeply grateful for their dedication and perseverance.

Sincerely in the Lord,

Justine Garcia

Pastoral Associate for Religious Education
ReEd@olqp.org

Welcome to a new year of CCD. I got my start as a catechist twenty-five years ago when our daughter, who was just about to enter kindergarten at the time, asked me if I would be her CCD teacher. Not being able to refuse my little princess I reluctantly agreed. But things did not initially go as planned. A week before the first class I was promoted to fifth grade. "Oh No! Now what was I going to do?" With the help of the Holy Spirit, and the teachers edition of the fifth grade book, I was able to stay one step ahead of my students and make it through the year.

As time went by I got more and more comfortable and began to find teaching more and more rewarding. How much the kids knew at the end compared to the beginning of the year made me realize that I was doing something beneficial for the children, their parents, the parish and the community. While they learned a lot about our religion, the sacraments, commandments and everything else you would expect, at the heart of every week's lesson was my question to them, "So, how are we going to put what we just learned into action?" I realize that although they may not remember all the facts, figures and details that were taught, as long as they take with them the importance of carrying on Jesus' Mission of being loving, kind, generous and a good example to others my time as a catechist was well spent.

Stewardship Corner

Giving in Small Ways:

Stewardship is not about large giving, but gifts in a small way. A child's gift, although small, gives glory to the Lord in many ways. Stewardship does not have to be monetary ways. A gift of time to an elderly shut-in serves the Lord, too. A gift of a loaf of bread to a homeless family could mean the difference between going to bed hungry or going to bed satisfied.

Treasures from Our Tradition

When the Roman Empire turned a favorable eye toward the once-persecuted Christians, among the effects was a population explosion in the baptismal font, as Christian sympathizers stepped from the shadows. With more and more people becoming Christians, laws were passed to protect Sunday as a work-free day. Soon, it became possible to celebrate Mass later in the morning, rather than the older custom of gathering before dawn to celebrate Eucharist. Amazingly, despite the increasing numbers of Christians, there was great resistance to adding to the number of worship events; the Eucharist that began as a few friends around a table soon was transformed into a more formal event with throngs crowding a large hall. All the Christians in a city or town would gather around the bishop for the one Sunday Eucharist, and only when the crowds became unmanageable was there an impulse to divide the assembly by splitting off a new bishop and flock.

Now, sixteen hundred years later, many parishes see a need to trim or combine Mass schedules. This is often seen as tough surgery. Yet our forebears in the faith would see it as a gain: a filling up of the Eucharist with a large and vigorous assembly, a fullness of ministry, an opportunity to make the Church more fully visible and stronger for service. —James Field, Copyright © J. PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

O God, who founded all the commands of your sacred Law upon love of you and of our neighbor, grant that, by keeping your precepts, we may merit to attain eternal life. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

How do I show love for my neighbor?

PRAY, HOPE AND DON'T WORRY

Pray, hope, and don't worry. Worry is useless. God is merciful and will hear your prayer.

- St. Padre Pio

MEA CULPA

The greatest of all faults is to be conscious of none.

- Thomas Carlyle

Act of Contrition

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven, and the pains of hell; but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, Who are all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of Thy grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life. Amen.
