Behold, the wages you
withheld from the workers who harvested your
fields are crying aloud;
and the cries of the harvesters
have reached the ears
of the Lord of hosts.

Thank God No One Was Hurt!

As you can see in the photos, a minivan on the way to pickup children from SBJC school had a terrible accident on our property on 9/21. Thank heavens no one was hurt! We have a video of the accident from our security cameras and have no idea why the driver of the minivan ran into Church property, but we are very grateful that she and the aide who was in the minivan was not hurt nor was anyone else.

This incident brings more evidence to the fact that the safety, protection, and security of all of us here at Our Lady Queen of Peace, our tenants and the children of South Bergen Jointure Commission and our surroundings should always be a PRIORITY.

Thank you for your continued contributions to our Repairs and Maintenance. Thank you most of all for your prayers. Let us continue to pray and to work for the safety, protection, and security of all.

Yours in Christ,

Father Tony

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the Power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Stewardship Corner

Stories of St. Francis:

Saint Francis was a remarkable man (Feast Day October 4th) who lived from 1182 to 1226 A.D. and is renowned for his love of animals. It is believed that once he even preached a sermon to a field of sparrows. He told the birds how lucky they were that God had made them to fly and that they always had feathers for clothing and that God had given them beautiful rivers and streams for water, and tall trees in which to nest and all varieties of food
(To be continued next week)

Treasures from Our Tradition

Did you ever notice how often the angels are referred to during Mass? We commonly meet them in the Confiteor (“I ask blessed Mary, every virgin, all the angels and saints”), prefaces (“with angels and archangels and the whole company of heaven”), the Roman Canon

(“we pray that your angel may take this sacrifice”), and Eucharistic Prayer IV (“countless hosts of angels stand before you to do your will”). Last week and this week angels abound as we celebrated Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael yesterday and will honor the Guardian Angels on October 2.

September 29 was originally the feast day for Michael alone. Gabriel and Raphael joined him in the 1969 reform of the Church calendar. The celebration of the Guardian Angels has been observed since the sixteenth century in Spain. Pope Clement X assigned the feast to the first free day after St. Michael’s in 1670, and there it has remained. Take some time this week to reflect on these, God’s messengers and our protectors, and maybe even celebrate with a little angel food cake!

FEAST OF FAITH

The Lord’s Prayer

The Eucharistic Prayer ends with the great “Amen,” the acclamation of assent by the assembly. Then the Communion rite begins with the Lord’s Prayer. We pray this prayer in many contexts, both inside and outside the Church’s liturgy. Here, in the context of the Mass, the Lord’s Prayer is profoundly eucharistic. When we ask for our “daily bread,” we are asking for the gift of the Eucharist. When we ask God to forgive us as we forgive others, we are seeking forgiveness and purity of heart before we approach the altar to receive the sacrament of the Lord’s Body and Blood—“so that what is holy may, in fact, be given to those who are holy” (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 81).

At Mass, a prayer for peace is inserted between the prayer and the doxology. In this prayer, called the embolism, the Church asks God for freedom—freedom from sin and all anxiety and distress. We are living in an in-between time; even as we rejoice in Christ’s presence, we await his coming in joyful hope.

—Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

THE PRESENCE OF GOD

In all our thoughts and actions we ought to remember the presence of God, and account all lost in which we think not of God.

—St. Bernard of Clairvaux

GOD AS THE CENTER

If God is the center of your life, no words are necessary. Your mere presence will touch hearts.

—St. Vincent de Paul
