St. Alphonsus Liguori on Advent

“Many Christians often prepare the Nativity scene in their homes to depict the birth of Jesus, but few are those who think about preparing their hearts so that Jesus Christ can be born and rest in them. We ourselves want to be among these few, so that we may be worthy to remain enlightened in this blissful fire, which makes souls happy on earth and happy in heaven.” from “Meditations on Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany” by St. Alphonsus Liguori

Children’s Choir Practice - Thursdays @ 3:30

I am pleased to announce that we will be starting a children’s choir! YAY! If you have kids that like to sing, any age, they are all welcome to join us. We will meet in the Church Thursday afternoons at 3:30. We will spend about 45 minutes in rehearsal. I look forward to speaking with you and your children. Please send me an email if your children are interested. Please include your name, your child’s name and age. My email is musicdirector@olqp.org - Janue

Our Children’s Choir Practice Has Begun ! - 11/17

We Encourage New Families to Register

Why should I register in the parish?

All members of the parish should be formally registered as members of the parish. You must be formally registered if you wish to arrange a Baptism, a Confirmation, or a Wedding in the parish Church or wish to register in the Parish School or the Religious Education (CCD) Program. You must also be a registered member of the parish for at least three months before you can obtain a Sponsor Certificate or schedule a Baptism or a Wedding. Please call the Parish Center at 201-845-9566 to register or visit our home page at www.olqp.org, scroll down to the middle of the page and click where it states “Parish Registration” to download the form.

Thank you and welcome to Our Lady Queen of Peace!

People of the Light

We are called to reflect the light of God’s love through the ways in which we live our lives. Imagine the impact if each of us took this call to heart, every day, at home, work, or school, in our parish, in the world. “All nations shall stream toward it,” toward the love that only comes from God. Yet, we must admit that much of the time we fail to be beacons of God’s light. We fall asleep, complacent, preferring to go the easy route, which often leads to darkness rather than the radiance of Christ’s light. As we begin the season of Advent, Saint Paul admonishes us to throw off the works of darkness, to awaken to the call of light and love. In today’s Gospel, Jesus too tells us to stay awake, to be prepared to greet the Lord of light as people of the light. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Immaculate Conception Triduum

Join Our Triduum Prayer to the Immaculate Conception (Monday Nights – Nov. 28, and Dec. 5)

All are invited and encouraged to participate in the Triduum Prayer to the Immaculate Conception. On Monday nights (Nov. 28, and Dec. 5) leading up to the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary (Dec. 8), a special Triduum Prayer will be held at 7 pm at our Church. This year’s Triduum will highlight a Reflection Series on “The Holy Eucharist: Presence, Sacrifice, Meal” to rekindle our love and devotion to the Mass. Our weekly praying of the Rosary for peace and protection in times of sickness will be integrated with the Triduum.

Come and join us in our prayerful preparation for the celebration of the Immaculate Conception.

HELLO SINGERS: Thinking you might like to SING? Stop thinking and do it. We are always looking for new members in the choir. We will be meeting on Tuesday Evenings from 7-9. All are welcome. Come and join us as we sing praise and prepare ourselves for the soon approaching Advent Season and Christmas Season. Try it, you might really enjoy it! ALSO: Instrumentalists are always welcome! Thanks, Janue

Altar Servers Needed!

Altar Server Ministry

A ministry of young boys and girls that holds an integral role in the celebration of the Holy Eucharist and other liturgical celebrations. They carry out various tasks before, during, and after each Mass assisting the priest and deacon.

The ministry is open to boys and girls in grades 3 - 12 who have received their First Holy Communion.

If interested, please contact: Fr. Tony at frtony@olqp.org or Maria Deauna at madeauna@olqp.org

Training to be announced!

Thanksgiving after Holy Communion

Anima Christi (Soul of Christ)

SOUL of Christ, sanctify me.

Body of Christ, save me.

Blood of Christ, inebriate me.

Water from the side of Christ, wash me.

Passion of Christ, strengthen me.

O good Jesus, hear me.

Within Thy Wounds hide me.

Suffer me not to be separated from Thee.

From the malignant enemy, defend me.

In the hour of my death, call me,

And bid me come to Thee.

That with Thy saints, I may praise Thee.

Forever and ever. Amen.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, may the whole world burn with love for Thee! (x3)

Prayer of St. Thomas Aquinas

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, behold I come to the Sacrament of Thine only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ: I come as one infirm to the physician of life, as one unclean to the fountain of mercy, as one blind to the light of everlasting brightness, as one poor and needy to the Lord of heaven and earth. Therefore I implore the abundance of Thy measureless bounty that Thou wouldst vouchsafe to heal my infirmity, wash my uncleanness, enlighten my blindness, enrich my poverty and clothe my nakedness, that I may receive the Bread of Angels, the King of kings, the Lord of lords, with such reverence and humility, with such sorrow and devotion, with such purity and faith, with such purpose and intention as may be profitable to my soul's salvation.

Grant unto me, I pray, the grace of receiving not only the Sacrament of our Lord's Body and Blood, but also the grace and power of the Sacrament. O most gracious God, grant me so to receive the Body of Thine only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, which He took from the Virgin Mary, as to merit to be incorporated into His mystical Body, and to be numbered amongst His members. O most loving Father, give me grace to behold forever Thy beloved Son with His face at last unveiled, whom I now purpose to receive under the sacramental veil here below. Amen.

Daily Prayer for Pope Francis and Our Clergy

Almighty and everlasting God, have mercy upon Thy servant, Francis, our Supreme Pontiff, and direct him, according to Thy loving-kindness, in the ways of eternal salvation; that, of Thy gift, he may ever desire that which is pleasing unto Thee and may accomplish it with all his might. Through Christ our Lord. Amen. Jesus, Savior of the world, sanctify Thy priests and sacred ministers. Amen.

Stewardship Corner

"Is He Here Yet?" (Matthew 24:37-44)

With Advent starting at the end of the month, this is a good time to prepare for our imminent visitor. Start by resolving to change your life. Examine your conscience and pick one or two sinful practices you want to kick. Then do whatever you can to grow closer to God. Spend more time in prayer, attend Mass faithfully, reconcile through Confession. Finally, give a few minutes in prayer each day for someone else who may be struggling. Then when your Master comes, you know you will be ready to greet him with joy. Rudy Schwarz

Stewardship Results

Thank you for your contributions last Sunday.
May God reward you for your generosity!

Due to the early bulletin cutoff, stewardship results for 11/20 will not be published until 12/4.

Our Mother of Perpetual Help Novena

Wednesdays at 7 pm in the Church

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Occasionally, someone raises a surprised complaint that while Christmas arrives on Santa's sleigh at the Macy's parade on Thanksgiving Day, the Church doesn't catch on too fast. They may even say that Advent is a newfangled idea. Not so. To trace its beginnings, we have to go back to the fourth or fifth century in France (then Gaul), when Epiphany was the favored day, next to Easter, for baptism. The old pagan structures of Rome were collapsing then, and many people sought to be baptized. Since adults always prepared for baptism by fasting, folks counted back a few weeks for a kind of retreat. Before too long, bishops were advising everyone to attend church frequently beginning on December 17. Soon, artists were imagining ways of expressing the Advent mystery, and in Italy this gave rise to beautiful mosaics of empty thrones awaiting the arrival of the Lord of all creation.

Advent as we know it develops on two separate tracks: the first having to do with our spiritual preparation for celebrating the Christmas feast, and the second having to do with the way this is organized and expressed in the liturgical readings and prayers every day of the season.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK CATHOLIC PRAYER CORNER

Advent Prayer

Come, Lord Jesus.

O God, you are great indeed.

Look upon us and reveal your glory, promised to Abraham and sent to us through David and his lineage.

Send us the warmth of your love, the light of your Word, the vision of your wisdom, and the comfort of your people.

Open our hearts in welcome and grant us your salvation.

Fill our minds with watchful hope and let us see your kindness.

Give us new life, the promise and joy of salvation.

May the glory of your Son dwell in our land forever.

We pray: Come, Lord Jesus. Amen.

OUR FASCINATING FAITH

The Season of Advent

What are we really waiting for during Advent? The longstanding tradition of the Church is that the Advent season really marks not one but three comings of Christ: his coming into history two thousand years ago, his coming in glory at the end of time, and his coming into our hearts here and now. Advent starts with a focus on the future coming of Christ so that we might see the big picture. If Christmas is to make any sense at all, we have to ask the question, "What are you doing to get ready for the (final) coming of Christ?" This perspective opens us up to the sense of anticipation experienced by the Jewish people on the eve of the first coming of Christ. This Advent, we will hear John the Baptist tell them (and us) how best to prepare. He urges repentance and an examination and reform of our way of life.

Then on the Fourth Sunday, we are drawn in to the history of Jesus' arrival as the child of Joseph and Mary. Our work of spiritual preparation brings us to the point of the whole season. What good is it that Christ comes into my heart if I don't then carry that presence out into the world, just as Mary did? Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

FIRST SUNDAY OF

Advent

NOVEMBER 27, 2022

“You also must be prepared,
for at an hour you do not expect,
the Son of Man will come.”

MATTHEW 24:44

PREPARE

Have you ever been caught off guard? The first Sundays of Advent often have an ominous quality to them. Jesus reminds his listeners today about how many people who lived at the same time as Noah were caught off guard when the deluge came. Of course, we can end up being complete nervous wrecks if we spend each day in paranoia, looking for signs of impending doom. A healthy readiness is called for, one that keeps us alert so we can find signs of God’s reign—soon to be made manifest in Jesus—around us. In the coming days of holiday sensate bombardment and hours that fill up with busyness, this readiness can also serve to keep us focused on the coming gift of the Messiah, God’s Anointed. Now is the time to take stock, to evaluate life, to make changes where necessary, preparing for God’s holy reign to come.

ON EDGE

There are numerous photographs of people who sleep on mountainside ledges, who carelessly dangle their feet into the space of geological chasms, and of course there’s the iconic photograph of workers eating their lunch on a beam of the under-construction Chrysler building in New York. Some people seem attracted to these precarious, stomach-churning locations; many of us are not. More of us have had the experience of beginning a new stage in life, with the excitement and occasional stomach-churning newness of a moment that can put us a bit on edge. Advent—its first couple of Sundays in particular—has a similar role in the passage of time that we call the liturgical year. It’s unlikely that the First Sunday of Advent makes many stomachs churn, but perhaps more would if we truly took it seriously that we are to make ourselves ready for the coming of the reign of God at any moment.

WALK IN THE LIGHT

When we encounter the daily news, it can seem as though Isaiah’s prophecy of swords turned into plowshares is running in reverse, making despair seem wiser than hopefulness. This is where Advent as the brink of God’s reign comes into play. Advent can be a time for each of us to de-weaponize, even in the smallest of ways, the world around us. Advent’s days offer a chance to look for opportunities to make the world a bit more hopeful for others. As we head through Advent, the elevated focus we have when we are standing at those new moments, those new stages of life, can help us tune out the despair, so we might open our ears and hearts to Jesus. This way, we can turn our backs on gloom, and accept Isaiah’s invitation to walk in the light of the Lord: Jesus Christ, the Word-made-Flesh!
