Heartfelt Gratitude and Sincere Appreciation to Our BINGO Organizers and Volunteers

Words are not enough to express my heartfelt gratitude and sincere appreciation for the hard work and effort of all those actively involved in organizing and running our BINGO for many years, especially Gary and the team of our parish volunteers.

As our parish community is moving into a more normal operating environment, we will no longer continue to host the weekly Bingo event upon the recommendation of our Parish Finance Council. Please be assured that our Finance Council has dedicated a considerable amount of time in discussion, evaluation, and most of all, prayerful discernment in presenting this recommendation.

Let us, therefore, be united as one parish family in offering expressions of gratitude and appreciation to Gary and the Bingo volunteers for all their dedication and service in all these years. We pray to our Blessed Mother that they will be blessed continually with God's providence for all the help and support they have given our parish through volunteering in BINGO. May God grant them a hundredfold of graces!

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Tony

THE DAYS ARE COMING

Separation, isolation, and hostility are terrible things. We are, sadly, too familiar with all of them in our modern life, whether we look at world events or events in our own neighborhoods and families. All three readings today refer to these same sad human conditions.

The prophet Jeremiah describes world conditions as if the people of his time were sheep who had been scattered by poor leadership and corrupt shepherds. But "the days are coming," he assures us (Jeremiah 23:5), when a new shepherd, a just king, will come. We meet that king in the second reading and the Gospel. Paul reminds us in the Letter to the Ephesians that all divisions can now cease in Christ Jesus, who has brought us together through his blood. In Mark's Gospel we see Jesus himself, looking with pity on those searching for him as if they were sheep without a shepherd.

There is no restriction on the number of Masses which can be reserved. Please visit the Parish Center to select your preferred dates.

Anima Christi (Soul of Christ)

SOUL of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O good Jesus, hear me.
Within Thy Wounds hide me.
Suffer me not to be separated from Thee.
From the malignant enemy, defend me.

And bid me come to Thee.
That with Thy saints, I may praise Thee.
Forever and ever. Amen.

Daily Prayer for Pope Francis and Our Clergy

Almighty and everlasting God, have mercy upon Thy servant, Francis, our Supreme Pontiff, and direct him, according to Thy loving-kindness, in the ways of eternal salvation; that, of Thy gift, he may ever desire that which is pleasing unto Thee and may accomplish it with all his might. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Stewardship Corner

Action, the Gift of Our Time
(continued from last week) Volunteering is another way we can give of our time. We can spend time in a school, work with the elderly, visit the sick, be a lector or a special minister of the Eucharist, or count the collection after mass. As long as we commend each day to the ONE who made all our days without thinking of what we can get in return, we are living the life of a steward.

Stewardship Results

	7/11/21	Weekly Goal
Offertory	$6,368	5,000
Repairs	1,000	1,500
Total	$7,368	$6,500

Treasures from Our Tradition

“Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while” must have been chosen for this summer season by a committee eager for a vacation. For the apostles, the promise of rest was foiled by the needs of the people who discovered their hideaway and pressed them into ministry. Some people do indeed use their vacation for ministry and mission, giving an intensity of service otherwise not possible. For most of us, vacation is a time when we can grow more aware of God’s plan, and can renew the bonds of love with family and friends in times of play and leisure.

The disciples learn today that there is no place so out of the way that the life of worship and ministry is disengaged. Giving yourself to summer worship will enrich you, delight you, and give you a sense of the word of God’s progress in your heart. In today’s world, summer is the time when we are most acutely aware of the beauty of the world. Gratitude and wonder are fertile soils for God’s word to take root and prosper. Welcome the visitor today, and resolve that when you travel, you will be faithful to Sunday worship. - James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

FEAST OF FAITH

The Prayer Over the Offerings

In the liturgy of the 1570 Missal, this prayer was called the “secret” prayer. It was “secret” not because its content was mysterious, but because it was prayed in silence by the priest, who only recited the conclusion aloud: . . . per omnia saecula saeculorum. With the reforms of the Second Vatican Council, we again hear these rich prayers spoken aloud. They remind us to prepare ourselves for what is to happen in the Eucharistic Prayer, for it is not only the bread and wine that will be transformed.

The Prayer Over the Offerings is a prayer for transformation, an expression, in a few words, of all that we hope that the liturgy will accomplish in our lives. We ask God to accept the gifts we present, and to change us even as God hallows the bread and wine. As we listen carefully to the Prayer Over the Offerings, we are reminded of what it is that we seek in the Eucharist: to be made holy; to be drawn closer to God; to come to eternal joy, unity, peace, and salvation.

MISSION

God has created me to do some definite service. God has committed some work to me which has not been committed to another. I have a mission.

—John Henry Newman

GOD WITHIN

God dwells in a secret and hidden way in all souls, in their very substance, for if God did not, they could not exist at all.

—St. John of the Cross

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.
